What is Epic's role in the Hedra Consortium?

Within the Consortium, Epic is Hedra's strategic web solutions partner. Epic has extensive experience of developing web solutions for central government, local government, education and the health sector.

Epic has worked with Hedra and other Consortium members over eight years to deliver web solutions to these sectors.

Epic's web solutions capability forms part of the end-to-end solutions capability of the Hedra Consortium. The consortium will work with its customers to:

- help you define your web channel strategy
- re-engineer services for web delivery
- design and implement web solutions
- provide a full range of managed services.

About Epic

Founded in Brighton in the 1980's, Epic is the UK market leader in e-learning, blended learning and knowledge solutions. With over 20 years experience, Epic works alongside clients as dedicated partners in learning. Its extensive client list shows our strength in both public and private sectors. Epic has won many awards for its highly innovative work in the application of online technologies for learning and in 2006 launched its first suite of products.
